CLAIM 1: "You're only a Christian because of your upbringing."

This is a _____ (judging a claim to be true or false on the basis of its origin rather than its merits.)

Being raised with a certain belief does not make it inherently true or false. That can only be determined by _____ the _____.

The claim that one's beliefs are determined by one's upbringing is _____ (the same issues would affect the one making the claim).

The explosive emergence and growth of Christianity, from the first century to places like _____ and _____ today, demonstrably disproves this argument.

CLAIM 2: "How can you possibly believe that your God is real, but the thousands of other gods are all make believe?"

This is a self-refuting argument because it requires the questioner to _____ the very knowledge he claims _____ be possessed.

There are fundamental differences between world religions that are _____.

The _____ of differing belief systems does not change the fact that the truth _____.

God, who at various times and in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets, has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds; who being the brightness of His glory and the express image of His person, and upholding all things by the word of His power, when He had by Himself purged our sins, sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high...
