

I Am Jesus: 3 Responses Matthew 2:1-6

Rome gave this Herod the title, "_____".

The Babylonian magi were a _____ priesthood.

Daniel was appointed _____ in Babylon over 500 years earlier (see Daniel 4&5).

Daniel prophesied the exact day Jesus would ride into Jerusalem ("Palm Sunday"). For more info, see <http://www.khouse.org/articles/1996/46>

The magi are literally _____.

Why is God worthy of our worship? Because He's _____.
See Revelation 4:11

V.2: The Greek word translated as "east" can also be translated as "rose" or "rising." An alternate translation would be, "we saw his star when it rose".

The "star" is most likely what Scripture calls the
"_____" (shake-in-ah) - the visible manifestation of the glory of God.
See Exodus 3, Exodus 13:21, & Acts 2.

One of the reasons God reveals Himself to the magi is because they were _____.

The presence of Jesus always pulls back the curtain on the _____.

Herod was an Edomite – a descendant of Esau.
See Genesis 25:21-34, Genesis 27, & Ezekiel 35:15.

V.6: References Micah 5:2.

Jesus is the _____.

Bethlehem = "House of Bread"

Jesus makes us great. Not because of who we are, but because of _____ we are.

Herod was too focused on building _____
_____, to welcome the Kingdom of God into his life.

God's Word demands a _____.

The scribes fell into a pattern of being hearers but not doers of The Word. See James 1:22-25